Using tools such as type on a path and the area type tool, I created portraits of The Rock, Mike Tyson, and Dave Chappelle. All of their faces are made up of common words to describe them or characteristics that define them.

Cherry Blossom

I use a dot pattern to indicate the leaves rather than drawing them individually while using the strokes of the brush tool to make the shapes of grass.

Astronaut Adventures

Digital Animation (blender)

This frame of 3-D animation depicts an astronaut who has crash landed on a planet. I created this as a way to improve my own animation skills being a rookie on my school's Robotics Animation Team.

This is the following year's Digital Animation Award with the theme "Recharge" in mind. The story follows a lone droid that's almost out of energy and in desperate need for a recharge, but it's stranded in a wasteland-like planet with no source of energy.

Kanye West

The outline of Kanye was made using the curavture tool and the paintbrush tool was used to highlight the finer details to bring out the colors and shadows

Billboard Mockup

Digital (Photoshop and Illustrator)

In Class

The bear on the left I drew in photoshop is wearing clothing and colors that try to encapsulate the essence of Kanye's music. It was paired with my previous drawing to create a billboard that promotes music on Spotify.

Blonde

11"x8.5"

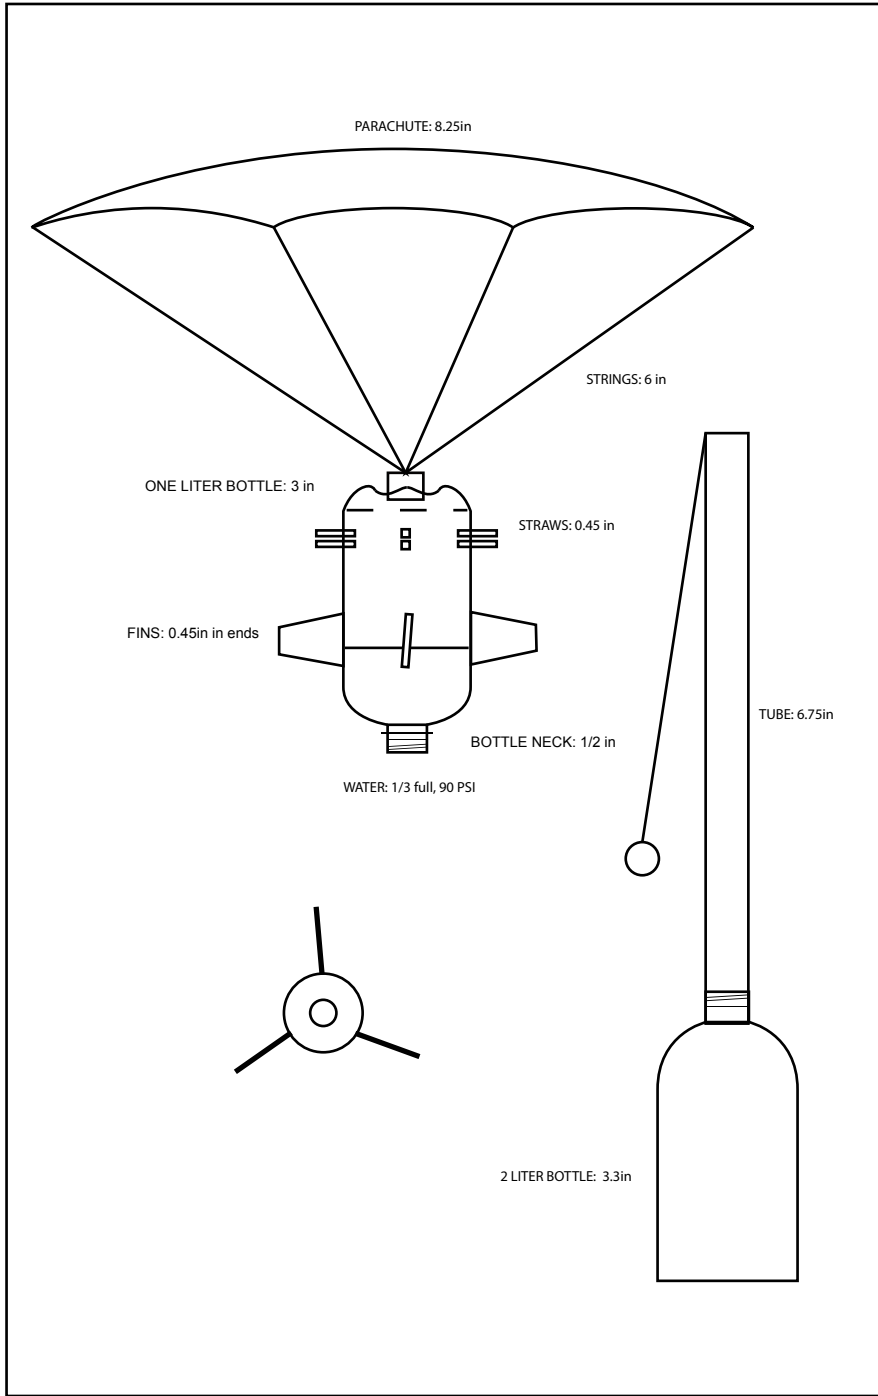

Here is another class assignment where I make Spotify advertisements, this time using artist Frank Ocean. To create it, I made an overall shape and blocked in colors to show shadows and depth in color.

Ghost!

In Class

This picture depicts somebody being possessed by a ghost. It was made by taking three different photos of a classmate and overlaying them while decreasing the aperture on the camera.

Parachute Bottle Rocket

In Class

11"x17"

2020-2021

Here is an orthographic sketch of a bottle rocket that was launched into the air using an aqua port. The intention was for the nose of the rocket to release a parachute at the peak of its ascent. Teachers gave the class creative freedom to pursue our own designs.
